He breathed on them and said, receive the Holy Spirit.

Sopló sobre ellos y les dijo, reciban al Espíritu Santo.

Dear brothers and sisters, with the Solemnity of Pentecost that we celebrate this Sunday, we come to the end of the Easter season in our liturgical year in the church. We hear in the gospel of this Pentecost Sunday about the third appearance of the resurrected Jesus, and among the many things He told them and did, He breathed on them and told them, "Receive the Holy Spirit." This same Spirit was present through tongues of fire on the day of Pentecost when the apostles were gathered in prayer. Jews celebrate Pentecost fifty days after the Passover of the Lamb to commemorate the meeting between God and Moses on Mount Sinai and the giving of the Law to the people of Israel, which symbolizes the birth of Judaism. So, the people of Israel were celebrating their feast, and the apostles were in prayer; most likely, it was in the Cenacle where Jesus celebrated and instituted the Eucharist. The book of the Acts of the Apostles tells us a great noise was heard coming from heaven, and here was the Holy Spirit in the form of tongues of fire that rested on the heads of the apostles.

The breath Jesus gave them on the night of his appearance is now present in the apostles. Right there, the Church was born, that Church that Jesus had entrusted to Peter to guide. The apostles went out without fear. Right there, they began to proclaim the good news of the Kingdom of Heaven; that is, they began to talk about Jesus. From there, they left, fulfilling Jesus' mandate to go throughout the world and proclaim the good news. This event occurred during the Jewish holiday of Pentecost. In the early church, Christians used to call the 50-day period that elapsed since the Resurrection of Jesus Pentecost and used it for baptismal celebrations. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (paragraphs 731-732) says: On the day of Pentecost, when the seven weeks of Easter had come to an end, the Passover of Christ is fulfilled in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, manifested, given and communicated as a divine person: from his fullness, Christ, the Lord, pours out the Spirit in abundance. On that day, the Holy Trinity is fully revealed. From that day, the Kingdom announced by Christ is open to those who believe in it: in the humility of the flesh and faith, they already share the communion of the Holy Trinity.

Dear brothers and sisters, for this solemn celebration of Pentecost, all of us are invited to renew the grace of the Holy Spirit that we received on the day of our Confirmation. Just last Friday, our teenagers received this grace by administering the sacrament of the confirmation conferred by Auxiliary Bishop Emeritus Octavio Cisneros, and today, Pentecost Sunday, our adult brothers and sisters who had not received it will receive this grace. We are also invited to let the Holy Spirit work in our lives, in our baptismal commitment, and in our commitment to witness the faith we acquired the day we received the Holy Spirit through the sacrament of confirmation. Let us let the Holy Spirit work, which is the one who has been guiding and leading our Church since that day of Pentecost. We are the Church of today, so let the Holy Spirit be the one who continues to guide us in the living of our faith.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas con la Solemnidad de Pentecostés que celebramos en éste domingo, llegamos al final del tiempo pascual en nuestro año litúrgico en la iglesia. Escuchamos en el evangelio de este domingo de pentecostés que nos narra la tercera aparición de Jesús resucitado, y entre las muchas cosas que Jesús les dijo y hizo, soplo sobre ellos y les dijo: "Reciban el Espíritu Santo". Este mismo Espíritu que se hizo presente a través de lenguas de fuego el día de pentecostés, cuando los apóstoles se encontraban reunidos en oración. Los judíos celebran el Pentecostés cincuenta días después de la Pascua del Cordero para conmemorar el encuentro entre Dios y Moisés en el monte Sinaí, y la entrega de la Ley al pueblo de Israel, que simboliza el nacimiento del judaísmo. De modo que el pueblo de Israel se encontraba celebrando su fiesta, los apóstoles se encontraban en oración, lo más probable es que era en el cenáculo, el lugar donde Jesús celebró e instituyó la eucaristía, el libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles nos dice que se escuchó un gran ruido venido del cielo, y eh aquí que el Espíritu Santo en forma de lenguas de fuego se posaron sobre las cabezas de los apóstoles. El soplo que les dió Jesús la noche de su aparición se hace presente ahora sobre los apóstoles, y ahí mismo nace la Iglesia, esa Iglesia que Jesús le había encomendado a Pedro guiarla, los apóstoles sin miedo salieron y ahí mismo comenzaron a proclamar la buena noticia del Reino de los cielos, es decir comenzaron a hablar de Jesús, y de ahí parten, cumpliendo el mandato de Jesús de ir por todo el mundo y proclamar la buena noticia. Porque éste acontecimiento se dió en la fiesta judía de Pentecostés. En la iglesia primitiva, los cristianos solían denominar Pentecostés al periodo de 50 días que transcurría desde la Resurrección de Jesús, y lo utilizaban para las celebraciones bautismales. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica (párrafos 731-732) dice: En el día de Pentecostés, cuando las siete semanas de Pascua habían llegado a su fin, la Pascua de Cristo se cumple en el derramamiento del Espíritu Santo, manifestado, dado y comunicado como una persona divina: de su plenitud, Cristo, el Señor, derrama el Espíritu en abundancia. Ese día, la Santísima Trinidad se revela completamente. Desde ese día, el Reino anunciado por Cristo está abierto a los que creen en él: en la humildad de la carne y en la fe, ya comparten la comunión de la Santísima Trinidad.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, por esta celebración solemne de Pentecostés, todos nosotros somos invitados ante todo a renovar la gracia del Espíritu Santa que recibimos en día de nuestra Confirmación, a penas el viernes pasado nuestros hermanos adolescentes han recibido esta gracia por la administración del sacramento de la confirmación conferido por el Obispo Auxiliar Emérito Octavio Cisneros, y hoy domingo de pentecostés nuestros hermanos adultos que no lo habían recibido, lo recibirán. Somos también envidados a dejar obrar a este Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas, en nuestro compromiso bautismal y el compromiso de ser testigos de nuestra fe que adquirimos el día que recibimos el Espíritu Santa por el sacramento de la confirmación. Dejemos obrar a este Espíritu Santo que es el que desde aquel día de Pentecostés va guiando y conduciendo a nuestra Iglesia, nosotros somos la Iglesia de hoy así que dejemos que el Espíritu Santo sea el que siga guiándonos en la vivencia de nuestra fe.

She is the patroness of impossible causes and hopeless circumstances because of her difficult and disappointing life. Through her trials God used her in remarkable ways. Now she assists from heaven those who plead for her intercession for their own seemingly impossible and hopeless circumstances.

Es la patrona de las causas imposibles y las circunstancias desesperadas por su vida difícil y decepcionante. A través de sus pruebas, Dios la utilizó de manera extraordinaria. Ahora asiste desde el cielo a quienes piden su intercesión para sus propias circunstancias aparentemente imposibles y desesperadas.
